The Festival of Passover (Hebrew – “Pesah” or “Pesach”) has a unique place in the Jewish home because of the Seder, the many changes that take place and the special atmosphere in the home during the Passover week. This Passover home atmosphere is something created by the family. One makes "Pesach" at home by the enthusiastic, cheerful observance of the traditional rules and regulations especially pertaining to foods, unique family and ethnic food customs, their preparation and serving.

How can you maximize meeting the unique needs and interests of your Seder:

This Haggadah printed on separate pages, for those who have not purchased Davka 6 Platinum in which this Haggadah was composed. Download one copy of the Haggadah, print it and then edit by removing any pages you wish to exclude to personalize your Seder celebration. Then, from this master you can print the number of copies to bind into separate Haggadot.

If you own Davka 6 Platinum, download the appropriate selection of the entire traditional Haggadah in its Davka6 format in which this Haggadah was composed. You edit it in any fashion you wish before printing.

3. This Haggadah version is intended for those who want a full, complete traditional Seder with minor “editing” of inclusions and exclusions. This edition does NOT include the Seder Song Book updates, which are available separately on the same website.

If you want a less complete Haggadah, you will different choices at this same website. Download a copy and print as many copies as you need. “Basic” version is a moderately edited version. The “Brief” version which is considerably abbreviated is based upon “The Family Participation Haggadah: A DIFFERENT NIGHT” by Noam Zion and David Dishon, with their permission. We follow their “Bare Bones Seder” and suggest that items 1-17 occur before the meal; and all in all, you should have a one hour Seder plus the meal. Zion and Dishon have written and published a magnificent Family Haggadah with a Leader’s Guide, and more recently updated editions, all enthusiastically commended to you.
Use this Haggadah in a way that makes sense for you, and is most convenient for your family and guests. For myself, I prefer to use a 3-ring notebook to “bind” the pages, or at least to bind my self-composed “Leader’s Guide.” This format enables me to edit, to add and subtract every year what does or does not make for a meaningful Seder experience.

While “Seder” means “the Order of the rituals,” it does not mean to create an “either / or” choice. Better to do it your way than not at all. If Hebrew, even in transliteration, is beyond you - use the English. If you need to abbreviate a section because of the age of the children, do what must be done. If some of the older children are learning Hebrew, encourage them to prepare - but without pressure - to lead a section with which they will feel comfortable.

We want you to have a fulfilling Seder experience - that will insure that you celebrate it Second Night, next Year and for years to come, for you, your family and your friends. Next year or in a couple of years you may want to venture into a more complicated, longer and engaging Seder, and we will have a copy for you free on this same web-site.

Although you may wish to print your Haggadah on both sides of each page. I suggest when you do so, leave at least one copy for the leader with a “facing page” in a three-ring notebook on which to paste, write, etc. notes and suggestions as you prepare for the Seder. Alternatively, you can print on only one side, leaving blank “facing pages” for children and others to illustrate with original art work, collages, notes from school, alternative subjects for discussion, etc. or to insert selections from “Seder Supplementary Readings” or “World’s Largest Seder Songbook.”

In addition to participating in communal Passover projects of tzedakah and caring, to attending synagogue services with your family, potential precious family holiday activities empower you to create and offer your family a beautiful and meaningful Passover heritage. The treasures of childhood memories are immeasurably enriched by the indelible impressions left on the young through sharing in Passover preparations, the Seder meal and the holiday services.

The following pages have been collected, edited, written and re-written numerous times, and they have been shared in congregational bulletins, faxes and now over the Internet. Wherever possible I have tried to give proper attribution. I hope that as we learn who has written which of these pieces, we can give credit properly in the years to come.

This Haggadah is a work still in progress, a work begun in 1970. There are a number of revisions and additions this year that I have not dated or printed differently; it would have been a “messy” text. In addition to the Haggadah text, its translation and transliteration, the website also lists a series of “Supplementary Seder Readings” which you can incorporate into your own Seder each night, in a way that is especially meaningful for you. I would hope that if you would like to make a contribution of materials - readings, new rituals, songs, etc. - that can be used, I would be grateful to make them available to others and of course give you credit.
Many thanks to colleagues, and friends over the years. For purposes of reader-friendly translation, I studied multiple siddur and haggadah translation too numerous to mention individually, but all of whom I acknowledge here as my teachers and inspirations. I do want to thank Reuven Lerner-Friedman and Jonathan Magen for their computer know-how and helpfulness through many years in bringing all of these materials to you.

Note: I call this “FREEWARE.” Feel “free” to copy, share, or in any other fashion allow others to use this resource in any non-commercial - no quantity limit. Last year there were tens of thousands of hits at our website early on, and that is the only goal of “Jewish FreeWare: to distribute a useful free product for non-commercial use, non-profit institutions and private use.

I have been editing, collecting and writing materials for the Haggadot, the Passover Seder Guide, Seder Supplementary Readings and Seder Songs in various formats - ditto, mimeograph, xerox, and now the Internet - for our family and our congregations as a labor of love since 1970. I hope that sharing it more recently through the Internet and my website that all of it or parts of it will be helpful to you and your family as well as friends for a sweeter and more meaningful Seder and Pesach Festival. With best wishes from our home to yours for a “zissen Pesach”

PREPARING FOR PASSOVER

1. You will find information at my website www.jewishfreeware.org and many other websites. Check for the “How’s and Why’s of Passover Preparation and Symbols,” “Passover Guide Preparation,” and “Seder Supplement” (always being upgraded) for convenient and helpful downloads.

Speak with your Rabbi and rely upon the publication of guidelines from your congregation or “stream”/movement/denomination regarding Passover rules and preparation. There are a variety of phone and email services on which you can rely at this time of year for information and you are encouraged to do so. The preparation for Passover ought to be part of the joy, the simcha shel mitzvah that you impart to all your family, especially your children.

2. I personally advise in all my materials a traditional approach of removing all hametz of food, drink and ingredients and their respective kitchen equipment of pots, pans, utensils and containers from your habitation possession. Not only do we set these materials aside in sealed containers and cabinets, but we also “sell” all our hametz, generally relying upon the Rabbi of our synagogue in order that we don’t possess it in any way possible.

3. Traditionally, on the morning of the 14th of Nisan, there is a special service for the First-Born concluded with a study session known as a Siyyum to obviate the need to fast. Obviously, not only are boys and girls welcomed with their parents, but younger children should be invited to attend to become familiar with the service and to prepare them for when they will attend the Service of the First-Born with their own children. Your Rabbi and tradition will determine if the Siyyum fast only applies to the first-born male or the first-born female as well and for younger children.
SEARCH FOR HAMETZ - בדיקת חמצה

[ On the night preceding Pesah, each family - adults and children of all ages - search for leaven = hametz. Customarily we search by light of a candle or flashlight and use a feather to sweep up the hametz into a paper bag; put out a known number of bread pieces, each on a napkin, one piece in every room. If Passover begins Saturday night, the search is moved to Thursday night and the hametz is destroyed Friday morning; the Sabbath meals are prepared kosher for Passover; the Fast for the First-Born is held on Thursday morning. Check with your Rabbi for specific instructions in all matters when Passover begins Saturday night. ]

Baruch atah Adonai Eloheinu melech ha-olam, asher kid'shanu b'mitzvotav, v'tzivanu al bi-ur chameitz.

Praised are you, Adonai, our God, sovereign of the universe, who has taught us the way of holiness through the commandments, commanding us to remove all hametz.

[After the search, recite the following formula which annuls all hametz crumbs not found and save the bag for burning the next morning no later than 10:00 AM or by the time your Rabbi advises.]

Kol chamira vachami-ah d'ika virshuti d'la chamiteih ud'la vi-arteih ud'la y'dana leih libateil v'lehevei hefkeir k'afra d'ara.

All the sourdough and hametz in my possession that I have not seen and not eradicated is hereby nullified and made like the dust of the earth.

ERADICATING THE HAMETZ - בצעור ח système

[ After finding and placing the hametz in the paper bag, it is to be burned before 10:00 AM on the morning of the First Seder, including the feather (or lulav) and wooden spoon. Burning it in an empty garbage can is safe and one should not use any kind of accelerant, e.g. gasoline. ]

Kol chamira vachami-ah d'ika virshuti dachaziteih ud'la chaziteih, dachamiteih ud'la chamiteih, d'vi-arteih ud'la vi-arteih, libateil v'lehevei hefkeir k'afra d'ara.
All the leaven and hametz in my possession - whether I have seen it or not, whether I have destroyed it or not - is to be considered null, public property, nor more than the dust of the earth.

Light Yom Tov Candles - **

Before sunset, generally by adults, with perhaps the children participating, usher in the festival by lighting the candles. Invite visitors and guests to join (which means that extra candles and candle-sticks are provided). Consult your Haggadah for the correct appropriate blessings for Yom Tov and/or Shabbat and then Shehechiyanu.

---

Baruch atah Adonai, Eloheinu melech ha-olam, asher kid'shanu b'mitzvotav v'tzivanu l'hadlik ner shel [ Shabbat v'shel ] yom tov.

Praised are you, Adonai, our God, sovereign of the universe, who has taught us the way of holiness through the commandments, commanding us to kindle the lights [for Shabbat] and of the Passover festival.

_Conclude with Shehechiyanu._

Baruch atah Adonai, Eloheinu melech ha-olam, shehecheyanu v'ki'manu v'higi-anu laz'man hazeh.

Praised are you, Adonai, our God, sovereign of the universe, who has sustained us, maintained us and enabled us to reach this moment in life.
Blessing of the Children - ברכת הבנים

[ On the Eve of Sabbath and of Holy days it is customary for Parents, either at the conclusion of the Service in Synagogue, or upon reaching their Home, to place a hand on the head of each child and pronounce the following Benediction. ]

For Sons say:

 ישמה אלוהים כאפרים וקָמְנָשֶׁה

Yesimcha elohim k’efraim v’chimenashe.

May God make you as Ephraim and Manasseh.

For Daughters say:

 ישמה אלהים קָשָׂרָה, רִבְקָה, רָחֵל וְלֵאָה

Yesimeich elohim k’sara, rivka, rachel v’leah.

May God make you as Sarah, Rebekah, Rachel and Leah.

For Both Sons and Daughters:

 יברךך יי וישמרך

Yevarech’cha Adonai v’yishm’recha.

Yaeir Adonai panecha eilecha vichunecha.

Yisa Adonai panav eilecha v’yasem lecha shalom.

May God bless you and guard you.

May God turn his face to you and be gracious to you.

May God watch over you and grant you and your children and your childrens’ children peace and blessing, for us and all humanity, for all time.
Mnemonic: KADDESH-URHATZ  - קדש ורחץ

[A mnemonic is a memory aid; it provides for remembering complicated liturgical structures when books were not easily available. Most Haggadot had fifteen words printed at the beginning of the Seder service that rhyme in the Hebrew and outline the Seder sequence. According to tradition, our mnemonic is credited to Rabbi Shlomo Yitzhaki, RaSH”I, a 12 century French commentator.

This mnemonic has various melodies and you can chant in once - or more times - depending upon those who are present and have favorite melodies from Religious or Day School and from memories of Sedarim past.]

KADESH URHATZ  - קדש ורחץ.
KARPAS YAHATZ  - כרפס יהץ.

I. KADDESH / Kiddush -

[ The following Seder is for a week-night - Hebrew or English. On Shabbat we add the shaded portions.. ]

Vay'hi erev vay'hi voker yom hashi-shi. Vay'chulu hashamayim v'ha-aretz v'chol- tzva-am. Vay'chal Elohim bayom hashvi'i, m'lachto asher asah, vayishbot bayom hashvi'i, mikol-mlachto asher asah. Vay'vareich Elohim, et-yom hashvi'i, vay'kadeish oto, ki vo shavat mikol-mlachto, asher-bara Elohim la-asot.

“And there was evening and there was morning, the sixth day. Now the heavens and all their host were completed;  God finished the work of creation on the seventh day. God then blessed the seventh day, imbuing it with holiness because on that day God ceased creating.”

Baruch atah Adonai, Eloheinu melech ha-olam, borei p'ri hagafen.

Praised are you, Adonai, our God, sovereign of the universe, who has created the fruit of the vine.

Baruch atah Adonai, Eloheinu melech ha-olam, borei p'ri hagafen.

Praised are you, Adonai, our God, sovereign of the universe, who has created the fruit of the vine.

Praised are you, Adonai, our God, sovereign of the universe, Who chose us for a unique relationship, lifting us who know the language of creation above those who speak an ordinary language, enabling us to encounter holiness through Your mitzvot, giving us lovingly [ Shabbat for rest ] holidays for joy, festivals and special times for celebration, particularly this [ Shabbat and this ] Passover, this time of freedom [ given in love ] this sacred gathering, this re-enactment of our going out from Mitzrayim. It is You who has chosen us, You who have shared Your holiness with us in a manner different than with other peoples. For with [ Shabbat and ] festive revelations of Your holiness, happiness and joy You have granted us [ lovingly and willingly ]. Praised are you, Adonai, Who imbibes with holiness [ Shabbat ], Israel and the sacred moments of the year.

[ On Saturday evening, we now add the following “Havdalah” section into the Kiddush to separate the sanctity of Sabbath from the Sanctity of the Festival of Pesah. At some Sedarim the leader will use the light in an electric fixture/bulb, or perhaps even the Yom Tov candles if nearby, while others will deliberately light a Havdalah candle from an existing light - and then recite the following berakha. ]

[ Baruch atah Adonai, Eloheinu melech ha-olam, borei m'orei ha-eish. ]

[ Praised are You Adonai our God Lord of the universe who created the lights of fire. ]

ברוך אתה אדוננו מלך העולם, בורא מאורות האש: [ בברכה של הבדלה }.

[ Praised are you, Adonai, our God, sovereign of the universe, who distinguishes between the holy and profane, light and darkness, Israel and the people, Shabbat and the six weekdays, the holiness of Shabbat and the holiness of a Festival. You have imbued the Shabbat with greater holiness than the six weekdays and You have granted of Your holiness into Your people Israel. Praised are you, Adonai, who distinguishes between degrees of sanctity. ]

[ Conclude Kiddush with Shehehiyanu. ]

ברוך אתה ה' מלך העולם, שחתם עלינו וĈי עולמנו לזמן הזה.

Baruch atah Adonai, Eloheinu melech ha-olam, shehecheyanu v'ki'manu v'higi-anu laz'man hazeh.

Praised are you, Adonai, our God, sovereign of the universe, who has sustained us, maintained us and enabled us to reach this moment in life.
II. URHATZ / Wash - וּרְחַץ

[ We now do a “washing” in preparation for eating the vegetable (Karpas). Since the need for such washing was questioned after the Rabbinic period and washing before eating vegetables fell ultimately into disuse except for the Seder, no blessing is required. For some Seder celebrations, only the Leader has his/her hands washed - but without a blessing, and in other customs we go around to each of the participants, pouring water over the hands from a pitcher into a bowl.

This is a wonderful opportunity for some of the children to take the bowl around with towels to wash the hands of the leader - or some homes all of the participants. In our home we purchased an antique bowl and a modern cup. That cup in time will age, and while today they are already a family tradition, in time they both will be antiques – and a source of precious memories for future generations. BDL ]
III. KARPAS / Karpas - קָרָפָס

[ Any vegetable grown in the earth that is not bitter may be eaten. Some traditional authorities insist upon parsley as the most authentic, but other vegetables used are celery, parsley, onion and potato as they also are the “fruit of the earth” and also remind us of the Spring season’s greens.

For those who are looking for a more substantive Karpas, consider the following: We have used all of the “traditional” greens - and added on several occasions sections of sugar cane. More recently we used blanched asparagus, displayed tips outward in a circle, with a dip in the middle. The last idea is a recipe is taken from a Shoah memorial cookbook, “In Memory’s Kitchen: A Legacy From the Women of Terezin.” In this fashion we combine both the memory of the oppressed of Egypt and the oppressed of the Holocaust. We have also used artichokes for which there are many kosher for Passover recipes, if only blanched in water with lemons and garlic and then served with a dip.

Dipped in salt water for purification and/or seasoning, these vegetables remind us variously of the baby boys cast in the Nile, the tears shed by the slaves and the waters of the Red Sea. The blessing said is the usual benediction before eating any vegetable. ]

פָּרִי הָאֲדָמָה בֵּיתֵךְ בָּרוּ הֵינָךְ מֶלֶךְ אֱלֹהֵינוּ יהוה בּוֹרֵא פְּרִי הָאֲדָמָה:

Baruch atah Adonai, Eloheinu melech ha-olam, borei p'ri ha-adamah.

Praised are you, Adonai, our God, sovereign of the universe, who creates the fruit of the earth.
IV. YAHATZ / Divide - יַחַץ

[Divide the middle Matzah into two parts, and there is no berakhah. Take the larger part, wrap it in napkin and save it for the conclusion of the meal as the Afikoman. Try - but don't try too hard -to keep it from being stolen by the children because it must be available for the end of the meal. For the sake of the children – and “a night of watching” – use a special Afikoman cover to identify it throughout the Seder and meal.

The top matzah and a middle smaller portion is to be used later for the “motzee-matzah” blessing recited for bread, and the bottom matzah is for “Korech,” the Hillel sandwich.

The Afikoman traditionally was placed or concealed under a pillow near the master of the house (or the one leading the Seder). Another suggestion for its being wrapped separately and removed from the table is to prevent against the possibility of eating the piece designated Afikoman before the proper time.

Another current practice in many homes is for the master of the house to rise from the table at some point during the course of the meal and hide the Afikoman somewhere in the home, and that when it is needed, the children are sent to “find” it, the successful one being rewarded with a prize or “redemption-gift.” Whether the master of the house hides the Afikoman or conceals it near him against theft, the additional purpose is clear today: to keep the attention of children in the Seder as long as possible, especially during late hours when normally they would have been asleep.

One of the first references to stealing the matzah comes from the Mishneh Torah of Maimonides, who states: “One should make some change in procedure on this night of the 15th of Nisan in order that his sons should notice it and ask ‘How is this night different....’ In what way might the procedure be changed? By distributing parched grain or nuts to the children, by having the table removed before the meal would normally begin, by each trying to snatch away the other’s unleavened bread, and so on.”

The best rewards are not money – contrary to many Sedarim. It may be easier to give children money, as is often done. However, it is definitely preferable that you spend some time and effort planning the gifts that will bind the children to their Seder and Passover memories. Consider gifts that they will use for future generations at the Seder service: (1) books – especially Haggadot that they can pass on to their children in time; (2) their own special Seder silver cup that can be inscribed with their Hebrew name or initials; (3) a piece of Jewish software for their computer; (4) or Seder toys that they can save for their children and grandchildren. Creativity and the age and interests of the child are the cornerstones for an appropriate reward.]
V. MAGID / Narrate - הָא לַחְמָא ﬠַנְיָא

1. Ha Lahma Anya - הָא לַחְמָא ﬠַנְיָא

[ The traditional invitation for all to join the Seder. Some also open the door at this point in the Seder, similar to when it is opened later in the Seder, as a sign of welcoming guests to the Seder. ]

Emphasizing the Symbols of Passover.

[ Some lift up the plate as if it were going to be removed from the table to keep the attention of the children and then point out the symbols of affliction. Some will uncover the matzot during the recitation of the story of the Exodus. Others hold the matzot over the heads of the Seder participants, just as the Angel of Death passed over the homes of the Israelites on the night of the 10th plague. ]

This is the bread of affliction, which our ancestors ate in the land of Egypt. Let all who are hungry come and eat. Let all who are in need, come and celebrate Passover. Today, we are here. Next year, in the land of Israel. Today, we are slaves. Next year, we will be free.
2. Refill the wine cups

3. Mah Nishtanah - מַה נִּשְׁתַּנָּה

“Four Questions.”

The Children's Role on the Night of Passover  Children are assigned a special place of love and honor on Passover eve and that includes asking the “Four Questions.” The youngest child in the participants who is able to recite the Four Questions does so, in order that we might fulfill the Biblical injunction to tell our children about the flight from slavery to freedom redeemed by the hand of God; and, should the child not ask, we are told to give him the questions to ask, in order that we might tell him the answers.

The normal pattern of eating and sitting at the table was changed in order to prompt questions from the children, encouraging them to note the difference between the normal and the Passover evening patterns. Such distinctions are noted in the various texts of the Four Questions. When a difference was historically no longer relevant, it was abandoned (e.g. the roasted flesh) and when other practices came into existence, they were added to the Seder liturgy reclining which was a post-Talmudic custom.

Mah nishtanah ha-laylah hazeh mikol ha-leilot?

Why is this night of Passover different from all other nights of the year?

1. Sheb'chol ha-leilot anu och'lin chameitz umatzah. Ha-laylah hazeh kulo matzah.

On all other nights, we eat either leavened or unleavened bread, why on this night do we eat only matzah?
Sheb’chol ha-leilot anu och’lin sh’ar y’rakot. Ha-laylah hazeh maror.

On all other nights, we eat vegetables of all kinds, why on this night must we eat bitter herbs?

3. שֶׁבְּכָל הַלֵּילוֹת אֵין אָֽנוּ מַטְבִּילִין אֲפִילוּ פַּֽﬠַם אֶחָת. הַלַּֽיְלָה הַזֶּה שְׁתֵּי פְﬠָמִים

Sheb’chol ha-leilot ein anu matbilin afilu pa-am echat. Ha-laylah hazeh sh’tei f’amim.

On all other nights, we do not dip vegetables even once, why on this night do we dip greens into salt water and bitter herbs into sweet haroset?

4. שֶׁבְּכָל הַלֵּילוֹת אָֽנוּ אוֹכְלִין بֵּין יוֹשְׁבִין וּבֵין מְסֻבִּין. הַלַּֽיְלָה הַזֶּה כֻּלָּֽנוּ מְסֻבִּין

Sheb’khol ha-leilot anu okhlim bein yoshvin uvein m’subin, halailah hazeh kulanu m’subin.

On all other nights, everyone sits up straight at the table, why on this night do we recline and eat at leisure?
4. AVADEEM HAYINU -እbblem kayno

Storytelling: “We were slaves”

[Two Babylonian Rabbis - Shmuel and Rav - disagreed about the perspective of the central story to be shared at the Seder table. Rabbi Shmuel held that the primary story was one of freedom from physical slavery to political liberation. Rav taught that the primary lesson of the Seder is theological, our turning away from idolatry and pagan worship to become followers of a single and unique divinity with which the People of Israel have a covenant for all time. The story of Shmuel begins with “We were slaves” and Rav’s story begins with “In the beginning,” p.26.]

[Read in unison, Hebrew or English, or ask different individuals at your Seder table moving around, right to left, with the privilege of “passing.”]

Avadim hayinu l’faroh b’mitzrayim. Vayotzi-einu Adonai Eloheinu misham, b’yad chazakah uvizroa n’tuyah, v’ilu lo hotzi hakadosh Baruch hu et avoteinu mimitzrayim, harei anu uvaneinu uv’nei vaneinu, m’shubadim hayinu l’faroh b’mitzrayim. Va-afilu kulanu chachamim, kulanu n’vonim, kulanu z’keinim, kulanu yod’im et hatorah, mitzvah aleinu l’sapeir bitzi-at mitzrayim. V’chol hamarbeh l’sapeir bitzi-at mitzrayim, harei zeh m’shubah.

We were slaves in Egypt and the Lord freed us from Egypt with a mighty hand. Had not the holy one liberated our people from Egypt, then we, our children and our children’s children would still be enslaved.
A Moment from a Seder of our Sages:

It once happened that Rabbis Eliezer, Joshua, Elazar ben Azaryah, Akiva and Tarfon were reclining at the seder table in Bnei Brak. They spent the whole night discussing the Exodus until their students came and said to them: "Rabbis, it is ime for us to recite the Shema."

Rabbi Elazar ben Azaryah said: "I am like a seventy-year old man and I have not succeeded in understanding why the Exodus from Egypt should be mentioned at night, until Ben Zoma explained it by quoting: "In order that you may remember the day you left Egypt all the days of your life." The Torah adds the world all to the phrase the days of your life to indicate that the nights are meant as well. The sages declare that "the days of your life" means the present world and "all " includes the messianic era."
5. The Four Children - אַרְבָּﬠָה בָנִים

[This is an opportunity to discuss not only types of children but different Jews and different reactions to Pesah and Judaism throughout Jewish history.]

The Torah speaks of four types of children: one is wise, one is wicked, one is simple, and one does not know how to ask.

The Wise One asks: "What is the meaning of the laws and traditions God has commanded?" (Deuteronomy 6:20) You should teach him all the traditions of Passover, even to the last detail.

The Wicked One asks: "What does this ritual mean to you?" (Exodus 12:26) By using the expression "to you" he excludes himself from his people and denies God. Shake his arrogance and say to him: "It is because of what the Lord did for me when I came out of Egypt..." (Exodus 13:8) "For me" and not for him -- for had he been in Egypt, he would not have been freed.

3. "What is all this?" You should tell him: "It was with a mighty hand that the Lord took us out of Egypt, out of the house of bondage."

4. As for the One Who Does Not Know How To Ask, you should open the discussion for him, as it is written: "And you shall explain to your child on that day, 'It is because of what the Lord did for me when I came out of Egypt." (Exodus 13:8)

[There are a variety of different children who have been created to supplement the traditional characters, including the Holocaust Child who is missing, the Child who has chosen to absent himself from the family or the Jewish People, the Child who has chosen another religious path, etc. It’s food for thought as well as an opportunity for family recognition of the blessings they do have. You will find some of these “Fifth Child” readings in the Supplementary Readings.]

One might think that the Haggadah should be recited on the first day of the month of Nisan, but the Torah says: "You shall tell your son on that day" [the first day of Passover]. One might think that the phrase on that day means that the story of the Exodus should be recited in the daytime; therefore, the Torah says: "This is on account of what the Lord did for me." The word this refers to the time when this matzo and this marror are placed before you - on Passover night when you are obliged to eat them.
In The Beginning - מִתְּחִלָּה

[ First, as noted on page 21 - the Haggadah according to Shmuel describes how we should recount the story of the Exodus in terms of physical freedom. This section records the teaching of Rav who wanted us to re-experience and remember the spiritual actual account of the Exodus, taking us from a religious slavery of idolatry and paganism to find freedom in a world conducted according to an ethical, monotheistic divinity. ]

At first our forefathers worshiped idols, but then the Omnipresent brought us near to divine service, as it is written: "Joshua said to all the people: so says the Lord God of Israel--your fathers have always lived beyond the Euphrates River, Terah the father of Abraham and Nahor; they worshipped other gods. I took your father Abraham from the other side of the river and led him through all the land of Canaan. I multiplied his family and gave him Isaac. To Isaac I gave Jacob and Esau; to Esau I gave Mount Seir to inherit, however Jacob and his children went down to Egypt."

Praised be He who keeps His promise to Israel; praised be He. The holy one, blessed be he, predetermined the time for our final deliverance in order to fulfill what He had pledged to our father Abraham in a covenant, as it is written: "He said to Abram, your descendants will surely sojourn in a land that is not their own, and they will be enslaved and afflicted for four hundred years; however, I will punish the nation that enslaved them, and afterwards they shall leave with great wealth."
6. V’hee She-amdah -

[ Since the cup of wine represents the "cup of salvation", we lift up our cup wine and cover the matzah, as we recite the following and recall God's promise to Abraham, emphasizing eternal divine watchfulness. ]

וְהָיָה שֶׁﬠָמְדָה לְאַבּוֹתֵֽינוּ וְלָֽנוּ. שֶׁלֹּא אֶחָד בִּלְבָד, ﬠָמַד ָלֵֽינוּ לְכַלּוֹתֵֽנוּ. אֶלָּא שֶׁבְּכָל וְהִיא שֶׁﬠָמְדָה
דּוֹר וָדוֹר, עֻמְּדִים ָלֵֽינוּ לְכַלּוֹתֵֽנוּ. וְהַקָּדוֹשׁ בָּרוּ canoe that remained constant for our ancestors and for us has saved us
Baruch hu matzileinu mi-yadam.

This covenant that remained constant for our ancestors and for us has saved us against any who arose to destroy us in every generation, and throughout history when any stood against us to annihilate us, the Kadosh Barukh Hu kept saving us from them.
7. Aramee Oved Avi - אֲרַמִּי אֹבֵד אָבִי
“My Ancestor Was A Wandering Aramean”

[ We lower the wine cup and continue with the recitation of the traditional Midrash or Rabbinic discussion of the Passover Exodus story as recorded in the Torah, beginning first with the threat to Israel from Lavan and then the threat from Pharaoh. ]

Go and Learn - צֵא וּלְמַד

Tzei ul'mad, mah bikeish lavan ha-arami la-asot l'ya-akov avinu. She-paroh lo gazar ela al haz'charim, v'lavan bikeish la-akor et hakol, shene-emar:

Go and learn: Note well that Lavan the Aramean intended ultimately to kill our ancestor Jacob, after he trapped him into working for his wives and flocks for 20 years. Even Pharaoh only intended to kill the male children, while Lavan intended to annihilate all of Jacob’s family, bringing the Jewish People to an end.
The Torah Story of Slavery and Redemption

[The Torah verses describing the descent of Israel to live in Egypt and then their redemption from slavery are now elaborated upon, phrase by phrase in the classic Rabbinic literature known as the Midrash. The Torah text is in Yerushalmy font and is several points larger to distinguish it from the text of the Midrash which is in DavkaDavid font.]

Arami oveid avi, vayeired mitzraymah, vayagor sham bimtei m'at. Vay'hi sham l'goy gadol, atzum varav.

Go and learn: “A wandering Aramean was my father, who went down to Egypt and sojourned there, few in number. And there we multiplied becoming a great people, strong and numerous. But the Egyptians deal ills with us and afflicted us, setting us to hard labour. Finally, when we cried out to Adonai, the God of our ancestors, Adonai heard our voice, saw our affliction, saw our toil and our oppression. Then Adonai brought us out from Egypt with a strong hand and an outstretched arm; with great awe, marvelous signs and with wonders.” (Dt. 26:5)

Vayeired mitzraymah. Anus al pi hadibur.

He went down to Egypt, compelled by divine decree.

Vayagor sham. M'lameid shelo yarad ya-akov avinu l'hishtakei-a b'mitzrayim, ela lagur sham, shene-emar: vayomru el paroh, lagur ba-aretz banu, ki ein mireh latzon asher la-a-vadecha, ki chaveid hara-av b'eretz k'na-an. V'atah, yeish'vu na avadecha b'eretz goshen.
He sojourned there implies that he didn’t come to settle in Egypt - only to dwell temporarily, as it is written: "They said to Pharaoh: 'We have come to sojourn in this land because there is no pasture for your servants' flocks; the famine is severe in Canaan. For now, though, let your servants dwell in the land of Goshen.'"

בִּמְתֵי מְﬠָט קָמָה שֶּׁנֶּאֱמַר: בְּשִׁבְﬠִים נֶפֶשׁ, יָרְדוُ אֱבֹתֶֽי, כְּכוֹכְבֵי הַשָּׁמַֽיִם לְגוֹי. וַיְהִי שָׁם מְלַמֵּד שֶׁהָיוּ יִשְׂרָאֵל מְצֻיָּנִים שָׁם:

Few in number, as it is written: "With seventy souls your ancestors went down to Egypt, and now the Lord your God has made you as numerous as the stars in the sky."

בָּרָב וַתִּרְבִּי, וַתִּגְדְּלִי, וַתָּבֹֽאִי בַּﬠֲדִי כְּמָה שֶּׁנֶּאֱמַר: רְבָבָה כְּצֶֽמַח הַשָּׂדֶה נְתַתִּי צִמֵּֽ, וְאַתְּ וּרֹם וְﬠֶרְיָה:ﬠֲדָיִם: שָׁדַֽיִם נָכֹֽנוּ, וּשְׂﬠָרֵ תְּמוּנֵה. מְאֹד, מְאֹד, מְאֹד, מְאֹד, מְאֹד, מְאֹד, מְאֹד.

There he became a nation means that they became a distinct people in Egypt.

Great, mighty, as it is written. "The children of Israel were fruitful and increased greatly; they multiplied and became mighty, and the land was full of them."

וָרָב, וַתִּרְבִּי, וַתִּגְדְּלִי, וַתָּבֹֽאִי בַּﬠֲדִי כְּמָה שֶּׁנֶּאֱמַר: רְבָבָה כְּצֶֽמַח הַשָּׂדֶה נְתַתִּי צִמֵּֽ, וְאַתְּ וּרֹם וְﬠֶרְיָה:ﬠֲדָיִם: שָׁדַֽיִם נָכֹֽנוּ, וּשְׂﬠָרֵ תְּמוּנֵה. מְאֹד, מְאֹד, מְאֹד, מְאֹד, מְאֹד, מְאֹד, מְאֹד, מְאֹד.

And numerous, as it is written: "I made you as populous as the plants of the field; you grew up and wore choice adornments; your breasts were firm and your hair grew long; yet, you were bare and naked." "The Egyptians suspected us of evil and afflicted us; they imposed hard labor upon us."

וַיָּרֵֽעוּ אֹתָֽנוּ הַמִּצְרִים וַיְﬠַנּֽוּנוּ. וַיִּתְּנוּ ﬠָלֵֽינוּ ﬠֲבֹדָה קָשָׁה

“The Egyptians treat us badly. They persecuted us and imposed hard labor on us.” (Dt. 26:6)

וַיָּרֵֽעוּ אֹתָֽנוּ הַמִּצְרִים כְּמָה שֶּׁנֶּאֱמַר: הָֽבָה נִתְחַכְּמָה לוֹ. פֶּן־יִרְבֶּה, וְהָיָה כִּי־תִקְרֶֽאנָה מִלְחָמָה, וְנוֹסַף גַּם הָעָלָה מִן־הָאָֽרֶץ:

And they afflicted us, as it is written: "They set taskmasters over them in order to oppress them with their burdens; the people of Israel built Pithom and Raamses as store-cities for Pharaoh."

וַיָּרֵֽעוּ אֹתָֽנוּ הַמִּצְרִים. קְמָה שֶּׁנֶּאֱמַר: וַיָּשִֽׂימוּ ﬠָלָיו שָׂרֵי מִסִּים, לְמַֽﬠַן ﬠַנֹּתוֹ בְּסִבְּמִיסְכְּנוֹת לְפַרְעֹה, אֶת־פִּתֹם וְאֶת־רַﬠַמְסֵס:

And afflicted us, as it is written: "They set taskmasters over them in order to oppress them with their burdens; the people of Israel built Pithom and Raamses as store-cities for Pharaoh."

They imposed hard labor upon us, as it is written: "They imposed back-breaking labor upon the people of Israel."

Vanitzak el Adonai elohe avoteinu, vayishma Adonai et koleinu, vayar et on'yeinu, v'et amaleinu, v'et lachatzeinu.

"We cried to the Lord, the God of our fathers; the Lord heard our cry and saw our affliction, our toil, and our oppression." (Dt. 26:6)

We cried to the Lord, the God of our fathers, as it is written: "It happened in the course of those many days that the king of Egypt died; the children of Israel sighed because of their labor and cried; their cry of servitude reached God."

The Lord heard our cry, as it is written: "God heard their groaning; God remembered His covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob."

Vayar et on’yeinu. Zo p’rishut derech etz. Kmah shene-emar: vayar Elohim et b’nei yisrael. vayeida Elohim.

V’et amaleinu. Eilu ha-banim. Kmah shene-emar: kol habein hayilod hay’orah tashlichu-hu, v’chol-habat t’chayun.

Our toil refers to the drowning of the sons, as it is written: "Every son that is born you shall cast into the river, but you shall let every daughter live"

וַיְהִי לְוָעָם הַגּוֹיִם שֶׁנֶּאֱמַר: מֵעָלָה תַּשְׁלִיךְ הַלֹּא יְבָשֵׂא בְּבָשָׂא. וְכָל הַבָּת תֵּחֲיֵהוּ.

V’et lachatzeinu. Zeh had’chak. Kmah shene-emar: v’gam ra-iti et ha-lachatz, asher mitzrayim lochatzim otam.

Our oppression means the pressure used upon them, as it is written: "I have also seen how the Egyptians are oppressing them."

Vayotzi-einu Adonai mimitzrayim, b’yad chazakah, uvizroa n’tuyah, uv’mora gadol uv’otot uv’mof’tim.

"The Lord brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand and outstretched arm, with great awe, miraculous signs and wonders." (Dt. 26:8)

The Lord brought us out of Egypt not by an angel, not by a seraph, not by a messenger, but by the holy one, blessed be He, Himself, as it is written: "I will pass through the land of Egypt on that night; I will smite all the firstborn in the land of Egypt from man unto beast; on all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgments; I am the Lord."

I will pass through the land of Egypt on that night, myself and not an angel; I will smite all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, myself and not a seraph; on all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgments, myself and not a messenger; I am the Lord, and none other.

Mighty hand refers to the disease among the cattle, as it is written: "Behold the hand of the Lord strikes your cattle which are in the field, the horses, the donkeys, the camels, the herds, and the flocks--a very severe pestilence."

Outstretched arm means the sword, as it is written: "His drawn sword in his hand, outstretched over Jerusalem."

Great awe alludes to the divine revelation, as it is written: "Has God ever attempted to take unto Himself, a nation from the midst of another nation by trials, miraculous signs and wonders, by war and with a mighty hand and outstretched arm and by awesome revelations, just as you saw the Lord your God do for you in Egypt, before your eyes?"
Uv'otot. Zeh hamateh, k'mah shene-emar: v'et hamateh hazeh tikach b'yadecha, asher ta-aseh bo et ha-otot.

Miraculous signs refers to the miracles performed with the staff of Moses, as it is written: "Take this staff in your hand, that you may perform the miraculous signs with it."
8. ESER MAKOT - The Ten Plagues

Eilu eser makot sheheivi hakadosh baruch hu al hamitzrim b'mitzrayim, v'eilu hein:

These are the Plagues that the holy one, blessed be he, brought upon Egypt.

A. Should We Rejoice For The Plagues?

[There is a custom of removing 16 drops one’s cup of wine. They are (1) the three plagues stated by the prophet Joel that follow now: “blood, fire and smoke,” - דם ואיש ותימרות אש - (2) next, the more familiar Ten Plagues” and (3) then the three terms which comprise the Rabbinic acronym for the Ten Plagues. This is the first recitation of three terms.]

Dam V'eish V'tim'ro ashan

“Blood, and fire and pillars of smoke. . . .”

“Before the great and terrible day of the Lord comes, I will set wonders in the sky and on the earth. . . blood, fire and pillars of smoke: The sun shall turn to darkness and the moon into blood.” Joel 3:3
B. Another Way Of Counting “Ten” Plagues

דָּבָר אַחֵר. בְּיָד חֲזָקָה שְׁתֵּיִם. בִּזְרֹֽﬠַ נְטוּיָה שְׁתֵּיִם. בָּמֹרָא גָּדוֹל שְׁתֵּיִם. בִּבְמֹפְתִים שְׁתֵּיִם.

Another interpretation of Deuteronomy 26:8 is: “strong hand” indicates two plagues; “out-stretched arm” indicates two more plagues; “great awe” indicates two plagues; “signs” indicates two more plagues because it is plural; and “wonders” two more plagues because it is in the plural. This then is a total of Ten Plagues.
C. ESER MAKOT / Ten Plagues

[This is the traditional listing and counting of the Ten Plagues.]

Eilu eser makot sheheivi hakadosh Baruch hu al hamitzrim b'mitzrayim, v'eilu hein:

These are the Plagues that the holy one, blessed be he, brought upon Egypt.

[Because our "cup of salvation" cannot be regarded as full when we recall the suffering of the Egyptians, a drop of wine is removed from the cup with the mention of each plague.]

Dam, Tzfardeah, Kinim, Arov, Dever, Sh’hin, Barad, Arbeh, Hoshekh, Makat B’khorot

Blood, Frogs, Lice, Beasts, Cattle Plague Boils Hail Locusts Darkness Slaying of First Born
D. A Final Way To Count and Recall The Ten Plagues.

[Since ancient versions varied as to the nature and number of the plagues, it is believed that Rabbi Jehudah instituted these three phrases or acronyms to confirm the version in Exodus. Accordingly we now remove another three drops of wine from our cup of joy.]

רabi יְהוּדָה הָיָה נוֹתֵן בָּהֶם סִמָּנִים.

Rabi Y'hudah hayah notein bahem simanim.

Rabbi Yehuda would assign the plagues three mnemonic signs:

דִּכֶּה עֲדַּשׁ בְּאַחַב דְּצַח

D'TZ"KH A-Da"SH B'AH"V

[ Moses Isserles teaches that because we are speaking of the “finger of God” one should use one’s forefinger to spill out the wine from your cup, and not the little finger that some suggest. Isaac Luria recommends that we should not use any finger at all but spill out wine from the cup onto the saucer. All agree that we should not lick our fingers when we have completed the ritual.]
Our Sages Elaborate on the Miracle of the Exodus:

[Our Sages in the second century proposed three number “mathematical puzzles” to each other to multiply the miracle of the plagues and the Exodus, expanding the discussion at the Seder.]

A. There Were 10 Plagues in Egypt and 50 at the Red Sea

א. נאמרו ברי, במעשה עבורה. מה להקול במעשה עבורה. עשה מпотות: טוומית מעשה, כנעניות אפור.

Rabbi Yose the Galilean says: How does one derive that, after the ten plagues in Egypt, the Egyptians suffered fifty plagues at the Sea? Concerning the plagues in Egypt the Torah states that "the magicians said to Pharaoh, it is the finger of God." However, at the Sea, the Torah relates that "Israel saw the great hand which the Lord laid upon the Egyptians, and the people revered the Lord and they believed in the Lord and in His servant Moses." It reasons that if they suffered ten plagues in Egypt, they must have been made to suffer fifty plagues at the Sea.

B. There Were 40 Plagues in Egypt and 200 at the Red Sea

רבי אליעזר אומר: כל ימי מצרים תמות, שמיים מכוסי בזעם. קני מה הוא אוים? נא רואים את תמות אפרים, אויר שלשה אפרים כנעניות אפור.

רבי אליעזר אומר: כל ימי מצרים תמות, שמיים מכוסי בזעם. קני מה הוא אוים? נא רואים את תמות אפרים, אויר של三期 אפרים כנעניות אפור.

רבי אליעזר אומר: כל ימי מצרים תמות, שמיים מכוסי בזעם. קני מה הוא אוים? נא רואים את תמות אפרים, אויר של三期 אפרים כנעניות אפור.

Rabbi Eliezer says: How does one derive that every plague that God inflicted upon the Egyptians in Egypt was equal in intensity to four plagues? It is written: "He sent upon them his fierce anger, wrath, fury and trouble, a band of evil messengers." Since each plague was comprised of 1)wrath, 2)fury, 3)trouble and 4)a band of evil messengers, they must have suffered forty plagues in Egypt and two hundred at the Sea.

C. 50 Plagues in Egypt and 250 at the Red Sea

Our Sages Elaborate on the Miracle of the Exodus:

[Our Sages in the second century proposed three number “mathematical puzzles” to each other to multiply the miracle of the plagues and the Exodus, expanding the discussion at the Seder.]
Rabbi Akiva says: How does one derive that every plague that God inflicted upon the Egyptians in Egypt was equal in intensity to five plagues? It is written: "He sent upon them his fierce anger, wrath, fury and trouble, a band of evil messengers." Since each plague was comprised of 1)fierce anger 2)wrath 3)fury 4)trouble and 5) a band of evil messengers, they must have suffered fifty plagues in Egypt and two hundred and fifty at the Sea.
9. DAYENU - דַּיֵּנוּ
“It Would Have Been Sufficient”

[According to the Vilna Gaon, just as there are 15 verses to Dayenu there are 15 benefits of God’s deliverance with a number of meanings attached to “15”: (1) the 15 Psalms known as Shir HaMa’a lot; (2) the 15 generations from Abraham to Solomon; (3) the 15 praises in Emet V’yatziv following the Shema; (4) the 15 blessings in the Birkot Hashahar. Why is there such a concern with the number “15”?]

God has bestowed many favors upon us.

Had He brought us out of Egypt, and not executed judgments against the Egyptians, It would have been enough—Dayyenu

Had He executed judgments against the Egyptians, and not their gods, It would have been enough—Dayyenu

10. RABBAN GAMLIEL - רַבָּן גַּמְלִיאֵל

[Rabban Gamliel taught that before we proceed further that we must understand the three principal symbols of the Seder meal.]

רַבָּן גַּמְלִיאֵל הָיָה אוֹמֵר: כָּל שֶׁלֹּא אָמַר שְׁלוֹשָׁה דַּבָּרִים אֵלּוּ בָּפֶסַח, לֹא יָצָא יְדֵי Chovato, הֵן: פֶּסַח. מַצָּה וּמָרוֹר.

Rabban Gamli-el hayah omeir: Kol shelo amar sh’loshah d’varim eilu bapesach, lo yatza y’dei chovato, v’eilu hein: Pesach. Matzah, U-maror Rabban Gamliel would teach that all those who had not spoken of three words on Passover had not fulfilled their obligation to tell the story, and these three words are: Pesah [Paschal Lamb], Matzah and Maror [Bitter Herb].

A. פסח

[Everyone’s attention is now drawn to the shankbone on the Seder Plate, but it is not touched or raised.]

פֶּסַח שֶׁהָיוּ אֲבוֹתֵינוּ אוֹכְלִים, בִּזְמַן שֶׁבֵּית הַמִּקְדָּשׁ הָיָה קַיָּם, ﬠַל שׁוּם מָה? ﬠַל שׁוּם הָיָה לַיָּי, אֲשֶׁר פָּסַח ﬠַל בָּתֵּי בְנֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל בְּמִצְרַֽיִם, בְּנָגְפּו אֶת־מִצְרַֽיִם וְאֶת־בָּתֵּֽינוּ הוּא, ﬠַל בָּתֵּי אֲבוֹתֵֽינוּ בְּמִצְרַֽיִם, שֶׁנֶּאֱמַר: וַאֲמַרְתֶּם זֶבַח פֶּסַח שֶׁפָּסַח הַקָּדוֹשׁ בָּרוּ הִצִּיל, וַיִּקֹּד הָﬠָם וַיִּשְׁתַּחֲווּ.

Pesach she-hayu avoteinu och'lim, bizman shebeit hamikdash hayah kayam, al shum mah? Al shum she-pasach hakadosh Baruch hu, al batei avoteinu b'mitzrayim, shene-emar: va-amartem zevach pesach hu l'Adonai, asher pasach al batei v'nei yisra-eil b'mitzrayim, b'nag'po et mitzrayim v'et bateinu hitzil, vayikod ha-am vayishtachavu.

The Pesah which our ancestors ate when the Second Temple stood: what is the reason for it? They ate the Pesah because the holy one, Blessed be He “passed over” the houses of our ancestors in Egypt, as it is written in the Torah: “And You shall say, ‘It is the Passover offering for Adonai, who passed over the houses of the Israelites saving us in Mitzrayim but struck the houses of the Egyptians. . . .’”
Matzah - what does it symbolize in the Seder? There was insufficient time for the dough of our ancestors to rise when the holy one, Blessed be He was revealed to us and redeemed us, as it is written in the Torah: “And they baked the dough which they brought forth out of Egypt into matzah - cakes of unleavened bread - which had not risen, for having been driven out of Egypt they could not tarry, and they had mad no provisions for themselves.”
C. Maror

[The Maror is raised.]

Maror zeh she-anu och'lim, al shum mah? al shum shemeir'ru hamitzrim et chaye avoteinu b'mitzrayim, shene-emar. Vay'mararu et chayeihem ba-avodah kashah, b'chomer uvilveinim, uv'chol avodah basadeh, eit kol avodatam, asher av'du vahem b'farech.

Why do we eat Maror? For the reason that the Egyptians embitter the lives of our ancestors in Mitzrayim, as the Torah states: “And they embittered their lives with servitude, with mortar and bricks without straw, with every form of slavery in the field and with great torment.”

[The Maror is lowered.]
11. B’KHOL DOR VADOR -

"In Every Generation"

[ Can we ever really identify and empathize with a generation of our ancestors who lived over 3000 years ago? Rabbi Jeffrey Cohen brings an illustration: “Shortly after the discover in Cornwall, England, in 1994, the body of a man preserved in ice for over 5000 years. A DNA search revealed that a young Cornish lady shared a direct genetic relationship with him. In an interview she stated: “One normally thinks only of one’s parents and grandparents as members of one’s family. I now feel that sense of identity with someone two hundred generations back!”

Note that while she identified through DNA, the Jewish People have identified with their historical ancestors in a constant literary tradition of names, activities, Talmud and codes, and the rich spiritual heritage of laws, customs, ceremonies and symbols that is constantly evolving and growing in meaning and depth. ]

Therefore we are obligated, to thank, sing the Hallel, praise, glorify, exalt, honor, bless, elevate and raise our voices for joy to the holy one, Blessed be He, Who performed all these miracles for our ancestors and therefore for us!

You brought us from human servitude to freedom,
from sorrow to joy,
for a time of mourning to a festive day,
from deep darkness to great light and from slavery to redemption!

In Your presence we renew our singing as in ancient days:
Hallel-lu-yah
Sing Hallel to God.
12. HALLEL

[ We are obliged to praise God, which we do in the Psalms of Hallel: We raise our glasses of wine and we cover the Matzot. ]

L'fichach anachnu chayavim l'hodot, l'haleil, l'shabei-ach, l'fa-eir, l'romeim, l'hadeir, l'veareich, l'aleih ul'kaleis, l'mi she-asah la-avoteinu v'lanu et kol hanisim ha-eilu. Hotzi-anu mei-avdut l'cheirut, mi-yagon l'simchah, umei-eivel l'yom tov, umei-afeilah l'or gadol, umishibud ligulah. V'nomar l'fanav shirah chadashah. hal'luyah.

Therefore it is our duty to thank and praise, pay tribute and glorify, exalt and honor, bless and acclaim the One who performed all these miracles for our fathers and for us. He took us out of slavery into freedom, out of grief into joy, out of mourning into a festival, out of darkness into a great light, out of slavery into redemption. We will recite a new song before Him! Halleluyah!
Psalms 113

Praise the Lord! Praise, you servants of the Lord, praise the name of the Lord.
Blessed be the name of the Lord from this time forth and forever.

From the rising of the sun to its setting, the Lord's name is to be praised. High above all nations is the Lord; above the heavens is His glory.

Who is like the Lord our God, who though enthroned on high, looks down upon heaven and earth?

He raises the poor man out of the dust and lifts the needy one out of the trash heap, to seat them with nobles, with the nobles of His people.
He turns the barren wife into a happy mother of children.

Halleluyah!
PSALM 114

[ The cup is again lifted in joy, thankful for God's deliverance, ready to praise Him with words of praise from Hallel. The Hallel Psalms are divided perhaps because during the period of the second Temple, Hallel was recited during the afternoon slaughtering of the Paschal lamb and then again at night during its eating. ]

B'tzeit yisra-eil mimitzrayim, beit ya-akov mei-am loeiz.
Hay'tah y'hudah l'kod'sho, yisra-eil mamsh'lotav.
Hayam ra-ah yanos, hayardein yisov l'achor.
Heharim rak'du ch'eilim, g'va-ot kivnei tzon.
Mah l'cha hayam ki tanus, hayardein tisov l'achor.
He-harim tirk'du ch'eilim, g'va-ot kivnei tzon.
Milifnei adon chuli aretz, milifnei eloha ya-akov.
Hahof'chi hatzur agam mayim, chalamish I'may'n'o mayim.

When Israel went out of Egypt,
When the household of Jacob left a people with a strange tongue,
Judah became the place from which God’s holiness went fort,
Israel became the seat from which the world would know of Gods rule.
The sea looked and fled, The Jordan reversed its curse.
Mountains skipped like rams and the hills jumped about like young lambs.
What is happening that you turn back, O sea,
Jordan, why do you reverse your course?
Mountains, why do you skip like rams
And hills why do you jump like lambs?
You are beholding the face of your Creator,
Before God, before the God of Jacob,
Turning rocks into swirling waters and stone into a flowing spring.
13. KOS SHEINEE -
Second Cup of Wine

[You will drink the wine, with a blessing. Sefardim according to the Shulhan Arukh drink the second cup but without a blessing; the commentary of Isserles adds the Ashkenazi practice “to recite a blessing before each and every cup, and such is the custom of the Geonim.” The wonder of the Seder is how many variations there are on a single theme of freedom.]

Praised are you, Adonai, our God, sovereign of the universe, who has redeemed us and our fathers from Egypt and enabled us to reach this night that we may eat matzo and marror. Lord our God and God of our fathers, enable us to reach also the forthcoming holidays and festivals in peace, rejoicing in the rebuilding of Zion your city, and joyful at your service. There we shall eat of the offerings and Passover sacrifices (On Saturday night read: of the Passover sacrifices and offerings) which will be acceptably placed upon your altar. We shall sing a new hymn of praise to you for our redemption and for our liberation. Praised are you, Adonai, who has redeemed Israel.

Baruch atah Adonai, Eloheinu melech ha-olam, borei p'ri hagafen.

Praised are you, Adonai, our God, sovereign of the universe, who has created the fruit of the vine.
VI. RAHTZAH -
Lave / Washing

[ The hands are ritually washed before the meal, as is required at any meal; it is performed similar to the previous hand-washing. Now, though, all wash with the usual benediction as the hands are dried. We wash because (1) we are a “kingdom of priests” and whenever we wash before eating, we are reminded of that special role, and (2) the ritual washing recalls the priestly eating of their tithes in purity. It is customary not to speak - but you can hum quietly - until all are ready to recite MOTZEE-MATZAH. ]

ברוך אתה ה' אלהינו מלך העולם, אשר קדשנו במצוותיו, וצבנו על נטילת ידיים:

-Baruch atah Adonai Eloheinu melech ha-olam, asher kid'shanu b'mitzvotav, v'tzivanu al n'tilat yadayim.

Praised are you, Adonai, our God, sovereign of the universe, who has taught us the way of holiness through commandments, commanding us to wash our hands.
VII - VIII. MOTZEE - MATZAH - מּוֹצִיא מַצָּה

[ The first food at the meal is, as usual, bread (naturally, however, this bread - the matzah - is unleavened bread). The usual beracha - the motzee - is recited. However, before eating the matzah, a second beracha, thanking God for the requirement to eat matzah, is recited.]

Since there is a debate whether one and a half matzot fulfill the custom of “lehem mishnah,” the two loaves reminiscent of the double portion of manna in the desert for Shabbat and Festivals, we raise all three pieces to recite Ha-Motzee.

כָּרוּךְ אָתָּה בֵּנְכָלֶּה וֹלֶת עָלֵיהּ כָּרוּךְ אָתָּה בֵּנְכָלֶּה וֹלֶת עָלֵיהּ

Baruch atah Adonai, Eloheinu melech ha-olam, hamotzi lechem min ha-aretz.

Praised are you, Adonai, our God, sovereign of the universe, who provides sustenance from the earth.

[ We do not yet eat the matzah. Instead, immediately after the Motzee, we now put the bottom matzah back in its place and continue, reciting the matzah beracha holding the top and middle matzah. ]

כָּרוּךְ אָתָּה בֵּנְכָלֶּה וֹלֶת עָלֵיהּ כָּרוּךְ אָתָּה בֵּנְכָלֶּה וֹלֶת עָלֵיהּ

Baruch atah Adonai, Eloheinu melech ha-olam, asher kid'shanu b'mitzvotav v'tzivanu al achilat matzah.

Praised are you, Adonai, our God, sovereign of the universe, who has taught us the way of holiness through commandments, commanding us to eat matzah.

[ We now break up the top and middle matzot into pieces and distribute them for all to eat a portion while reclining. There is a custom not to salt the matzah even though some make salt available hallah on Shabbat or other Festivals. ]
IX. MAROR / Bitter Herbs - מָרוֹר

[ Small pieces of horse-radish are dipped into the haroset (symbolic of mortar) to indicate that over-emphasis on material things results in bitterness. Before eating it, a berakha thanking God for this requirement is recited. Some people mix the pieces of horse-radish with haroset. We generally do not recline while eating maror as it is a symbol of slavery. ]

ברוך אתה אדוני מלך העולם, אשר קדשנו במצותיו וציו לנו על אכילת הפרור.

Praised are you, Adonai, our God, sovereign of the universe, who has taught us the way of holiness through commandments, commanding us to eat the bitter herb.
X. KOREKH / Hillel Sandwich - קורך

[ In ancient times, Hillel ate the three symbolic foods (lamb, matzah and bitter herbs) folded together so that each mouthful contained all three. Thus the symbols of slavery and of liberation were intermingled. Now that we do not have the Paschal lamb, we eat just the matzah and horseradish in a "Hillel sandwich". No special berakha is said, but we do read the following words recalling Hillel's practice. ]

This way of eating matzah, maror and haroset reminds us of how Hillel would do so when the Second Temple still existed, making a sandwich of the Paschal lamb, matzah and maror, fulfilling the Torah injunction: “with matzot and maror they shall eat the Pashal lamb.”
XI. SHULHAN OREKH / Meal - נְשֻׁלְחָן עוֹרֵקָה

[ The joyous feasting gives us the feeling of human fellowship in harmony with God. The meal traditionally begins with a hard-boiled egg, dipped or covered with some of the salt water. Thereafter, it is a traditional festive meal.

I had learned long ago in a Seminary class that a Roman banquet, described in the Latin phrase, was “from an egg to an apple.” To me it always suggested the tradition of the hard-boiled egg and the apple as the primary ingredient of the Seder haroset. But that’s just a thought. BDL ]
XII. TZAFUN / AFIKOMAN / Dessert - צָפוּן

[ If someone of the children has “stolen” it, or if the adults have hidden the Afikoman when it is first put aside (IV) and let the children look for it during the meal to win a prize, it is now time to redeem the Afikoman. Then, each person eats a portion of the Afikoman.

After one eats the Afikoman, it is forbidden to eat anything further or to drink anything but for the two remaining mandatory ritual cups of wine, one for the Grace after meals and one for Hallel.

One accepted theory is that Afikoman is a Greek word connoting the dessert – dates, parched corn, nuts, sweet fruits, etc. The Seder meal in the time of the Temple was concluded with a taste of the Paschal lamb that had been offered in the Temple, after which nothing further was eaten.

More recently, the suggestion has been made that the word is akin to a Greek word meaning “entertainment” which concluded the Greco-Roman festive meal. Whether “dinner music,” “dessert,” or “the practice of going from house to house after dinner,” the Sages of the Talmud prohibited any practices which might detract from the attention that must be paid to the symbol of Passover, the Paschal sacrifice.

It is the custom in some countries to save a piece of the Afikoman from the Second Seder until the burning of the Hametz the following year, when both are burned together.]
XIII. BAREKH / Birkat HaMazone - ברכה

[ Fill the cup before the Birkat HaMazone / grace. The following is is the traditional Complete “Grace After Meals.” including, of course, thankfulness for the Passover holiday. The Shorter “Grace After Meals.” begins on page 71. Shaded sections on included on Shabbat. ]

Psalm 126

A Song of Ascents. When the Lord returned us from exile back to Zion, it was as though we were dreaming. We laughed in joy and sang happy songs. It was said around the world: "The Lord has done great things for them." The Lord did great things for us, and we rejoiced. God, restore our captives. We shall be like streams in the Negev. Those who sow in tears shall ultimately reap in joy. Though the farmer bears the measure of seed to the field in sadness, he shall come home with joy, bearing his sheaves.

For everything, Adonai, our God, we thank and praise you. May your name be blessed by all forever, as it is written: "After you have eaten and are satisfied, you shall bless Adonai, our God for the good land he has given you." Praised are you, Adonai, for the land and the food.

Our God, our Father, tend and feed us; sustained and support us and relieve us. Speedily, Adonai our God, grant us relief from all our troubles. Lord our God, O make us not rely on the gifts and loans of men but rather on your full, open and generous hand, that we may never be put to shame and disgrace.

[ On Shabbat add:  Favor us and strengthen us, Lord our God, with your commandments—with the commandment concerning the seventh day, this great and holy Sabbath. This day is great and holy before you to abstain from work and rest on it in love according to your will. In your will, Lord our God, grant us rest so that there be nor sorrow and grief on our day of rest. Let us, Lord our God, live to see Zion your city comforted, Jerusalem your holy city rebuilt, for you art Master of all salvation and consolation. ]
Our God and God of our fathers, may the remembrance of us, of our fathers, of the anointed son of David your servant, of Jerusalem your holy city, and of all your people the house of Israel, ascend, come, appear, be heard, and be accepted before you for deliverance and good, for grace, kindness and mercy, for life and peace, on this day of the Festival of Matzot.

Remember us this day, Lord our God, for goodness; consider us for blessing; save us for life. With a word of salvation and mercy spare us and favor us; have pity on us and save us, for we look to you, for you art a gracious and merciful God and King.

God is our tower of salvation, showing kindness to his anointed, to David and his descendents forever. May he who creates peace in his heavenly heights, may he grant peace for us, all Israel; and and all humanity, and we can say, Amen.

Revere the Lord, all God’s holy ones for those who revere Adonai suffer no want. Lions may starve, but those who seek the Lord shall lack nothing. Give thanks to the Lord, for God is good; God’s kindness endures forever. You open your hand and satisfy the needs of every living thing. Blessed is the everyone who trusts in the Lord, for the Lord will surely guarantee protection. I once was young and now I am old, but never have I seen a righteous person forsaken, nor his children in want of bread. The Lord strengthens God’s people, blessing them with peace.
KOS SH’LISHEE - THIRD CUP

[ We conclude the Grace after the meal by drinking the Third Cup of wine, the cup of blessing, while reclining to the left.]

Baruch atah Adonai, Eloheinu melech ha-olam, borei p’ri hagafen.

Praised are you, Adonai, Lord of the universe, who has created the fruit of the vine.
KOS SHEL ELIYAHU - כוס אליעזר

[ At this point in the Seder, we fill the Cup of Elijah on the table. We rise, and we generally send the youngest child(ren) still awake to open the door for Elijah, who by tradition is the forerunner of the Messiah, the harbinger of hope. Sing "Eliyahu Ha-Navi" and then close the door. ]

God has taught all men to love their neighbors as themselves. Yet, in almost every age, some have not obeyed His command. Our people have suffered frequently at the hands of such men. In God’s own way and in His own time, the wicked pay the price of their wickedness. For God is a God of justice. As we open our doors and our hearts to Elijah, we pray that there soon will be an end to all evil deeds in the world. God has shown us the paths to peace. Amen.
Miriam's Cup Ritual in the Family Seder
(http://www.miriamscup.com/RitualPrint.htm)

Filling Miriam's Cup follows the second cup of wine, before washing the hands. Raise the empty goblet and say:

“Miriam's cup is filled with water, rather than wine. I invite women of all generations at our Seder table to fill Miriam's cup with water from their own glasses.”

Pass Miriam's cup around the table(s); explain the significance of filling Miriam's cup with water:

A Midrash teaches us that a miraculous well accompanied the Hebrews throughout their journey in the desert, providing them with water. This well was given by God to Miriam, the prophetess, to honor her bravery and devotion to the Jewish people. Both Miriam and her well were spiritual oases in the desert, sources of sustenance and healing. Her words of comfort gave the Hebrews the faith and confidence to overcome the hardships of the Exodus. We fill Miriam's cup with water to honor her role in ensuring the survival of the Jewish people. Like Miriam, Jewish women in all generations have been essential for the continuity of our people. As keepers of traditions in the home, women passed down songs and stories, rituals and recipes, from mother to daughter, from generation to generation. Let us each fill the cup of Miriam with water from our own glasses, so that our daughters may continue to draw from the strength and wisdom of our heritage.

When Miriam's cup is filled, raise the goblet and say:

We place Miriam's cup on our Seder table to honor the important role of Jewish women in our tradition and history, whose stories have been too sparingly told.

Continue by reciting this prayer:

"You abound in blessings, God, creator of the universe, Who sustains us with living water. May we, like the children of Israel leaving Egypt, be guarded and nurtured and kept alive in the wilderness, and may You give us wisdom to understand that the journey itself holds the promise of redemption. AMEN." (from Susan Schnur)

Next, tell the story of a Jewish woman you admire. Begin by saying:

Each Passover, we dedicate Miriam's cup to a Jewish woman who has made important contributions in achieving equality and freedom for others. This year, we honor…(use a selection from The Jewish Womans Archive online, a family member, or someone prepares in advance a biography from online resources or home reference books.

Dancing in honor of the prophetess Miriam follows the rituals for the prophet Elijah after the meal. Lift Miriam's cup and say:

Miriam's life is a contrast to the life of Elijah, and both teach us important lessons. Elijah was a hermit, who spent part of his life alone in the desert. He was a visionary and prophet, often very critical of the Jewish people, and focused on the messianic era. On the other hand, Miriam lived among her people in the desert, following the path of hesed, or loving-kindness. She constantly comforted the Israelites throughout their long journey, encouraging them when they lost faith. Therefore, Elijah's cup is a symbol of future messianic redemption, while Miriam's cup is a symbol of hope and renewal in the present life. We must achieve balance in our own lives, not only preparing our souls for redemption, but rejuvenating our souls in the present. Thus, we need both Elijah's cup and Miriam's cup at our Seder table.

Sing and dance with tambourines. First hold up a tambourine and say (from Exodus 15:20-21):

"And Miriam the prophetess, took a timbrel in her hand; and all the women went out after her, with timbrels and with dances. And Miriam sang unto them, Sing ye to the Lord, for He is highly exalted; The horse and his rider hath He thrown into the sea." As Miriam once led the women of Israel in song and dance to praise God for the miracle of splitting the Red Sea, so we now rejoice and celebrate the freedom of the Jewish people today.

Pour Out Your Wrath

[A late addition to the Haggadah, after the period of the Crusades and the pogroms of the Rhineland. The Crusades were a series of military conflicts of a religious character waged by Christians from 1096-1291, usually sanctioned by the Pope. The First Crusade was launched in 1095 by Pope Urban II with the dual goals of liberating the sacred city of Jerusalem and the Holy Land from Muslims, and freeing the Eastern Christians from Muslim rule. Inevitably the Crusades also involved destruction and oppression of Jewish communities in Europe and the Holy Land. The harshness of this section often causes it to be excluded or skipped in many a modern Seder.]

“Pour out your fury on the nations that do not know you, upon the kingdoms that do not invoke your name, they have devoured Jacob and desolated his home.” (Ps. 79:6,7) “Pour out your wrath on them; may your blazing anger overtake them.” (Ps. 69.25) “Pursue them in wrath and destroy them from under the heavens of the Lord!” (Lam. 3:66)

Pour Out Your Love On The Righteous Gentiles

Pour out your love on the nations who have known you and on the kingdoms who call upon your name. For they show loving-kindness to the seed of Jacob and they defend your people Israel from those who would devour them alive. May they live to see the sukkah of peace spread over your chosen ones and to participate in the joy of your nations.
[Conclude HALLEL and join together in SEDER SONGS, traditional and new, that will be found at the conclusion of this Haggadah. Many are song parodies that can help to make your Seder more fun and you should prepare in advance which of them you will want to have everyone sing during the Seder and at which point in the Seder and then which will be left to the end of the Seder.]

Psalm 115:1-11

לָאָו לָנוּ עָלָיו יָאִיתָ יִשְׂרָאֵל, לָאָו הַגּוֹיִם עָלָיו יָאִיתָ יִשְׂרָאֵל. לָאָו יְיָ עָלָיו יָאִיתָ יִשְׂרָאֵל. לָאָו יִשְׁתַּחֵוּ בְּאַחֲרֵי הַשָּׁמָּיִם, לָאָו יֶהְפְּרוּ בָּאתָם. לָאָו לָנוּ בְּגֵדָה, לָאָו לָנוּ בְּכַל אֲשֶׁר חָפֵץ אָסַדְוָה. לָאָו מַﬠֲשֵׂה יְדֵי אָדָם, לָאָו מַﬠֲשֵׁה יְדֵי אָדָם. לָאָו יִרְאוּ, לָאָו יִשְׁמָֽעוּ, לָאָו יִרְֽיחוּן, לָאָו יִמְּיַשְּׁן, לָאָו רַגְלֵיהֶם יִהְגּוּ בִּגְרוֹנָם.

Nor for our sake, O Lord, not for our sake, but for your name's sake give glory, because of your kindness and your truth.

Why should the nations say: "Where is their God?" Our God is in the heavens; He does whatever He pleases!

Their idols are silver and gold, the work of human hands.

They have a mouth, but they cannot speak; they have eyes, but they cannot see; they have ears, but they cannot hear; they have a nose, but they cannot smell; they have hands, but they cannot feel; they have feet, but they cannot walk; nor can they utter a sound with their throat. Those who make them shall become like them, whoever trusts in them.

O Israel, trust in the Lord! He is their help and shield.

You who revere the Lord, trust in the Lord! He is their help and shield.

The Lord who has remembered us will bless;
He will bless the house of Israel;
He will bless the house of Aaron;
He will bless those who revere the Lord, the small with the great.
May the Lord increase you, you and your children.
You are blessed by the Lord, who made the heaven and earth.
The heaven is the Lord's heaven, but he has given the earth to mankind.
The dead cannot praise the Lord, nor can any who go down into silence.
We will bless the Lord from this time forth and forever. Halleuyah!
Psalm 116:1-11

I love that the Lord hears my supplications.
Because he has inclined his ear to me, I will call upon him as long as I live.
The cords of death encircled me; the pains of the grave have overtaken me;
I found trouble and sorrow.
Then I called upon the name of the Lord: "O Lord, save my life!"
Gracious is the Lord, and righteous and our God is merciful.
The Lord protects the simple;
I was brought low and he saved me.
Return to your rest, O my soul, for the Lord has been kind to you.
You delivered me from death, my eyes from tears and my feet from stumbling.
I shall walk before the Lord in the lands of the living.
I kept faith even when I cry out: "I am greatly afflicted.'
I kept faith even when I said in haste: "All men are deceitful."
Psalm 116:12-19

How can I repay the Lord for all his kind acts toward me?
I will raise the cup of salvations, and call upon the name of the Lord.
My vows to the Lord I will pay in the presence of all his people.
Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his pious followers.
O Lord, I am truly your servant; I am your servant, the son of your hand-maid;
You has loosened my bonds.
To you I sacrifice a thanksgiving offering, and call upon the name of the Lord.
My vows to the Lord I will pay in the presence of all his people,
In the courts of the Lord's house, in the midst of Jerusalem.
Halleluyah!
Psalm 117

HAL'LU ET ADONAI, KOL GOYIM, SHAB'CHU-HU, KOL HA-UMIM. KI GAVAR ALEINU CHASDO, VE-EMET ADONAI L'OLAM, HAL'LUYAH.

Give thanks to the Lord, all you nations; praise him, all you peoples!
For his kindness overwhelms us, and the truth of the Lord is forever, Halleluyah!

Psalm 118:1-4

HODU L'ADORAI KI TOV, KI L'OLAM CHASDO.
YOMAR NA YISRA-EL, KI L'OLAM CHASDO.
YOMRU NA VEIT AHARON, KI L'OLAM CHASDO.
YOMRU NA YI'REI ADONAI, KI L'OLAM CHASDO.

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good;
His kindness endures forever.
Let Israel say: his kindness endures forever.
Let the house of Aaron say: his kindness endures forever.
Let those who revere the Lord say: his kindness endures forever.

Psalm 118:5-29

CHASDO TEHUNO V'BA EHLIE CHAYIL.
CHASDO TEHUNO V'BA EHLIE CHAYIL.
CHASDO TEHUNO V'BA EHLIE CHAYIL.
CHASDO TEHUNO V'BA EHLIE CHAYIL.

LET THOSE WHO REVERE THE LORD SAY: HIS KINDNESS ENDURES FOREVER.

From the straits I called upon the Lord; the Lord answered me by placing me in a great expanse. The Lord is with me; I have no fear of what man can do to me. The Lord is with me among my helpers; I shall see the defeat of my foes. It is better to seek refuge in the Lord than to trust in man. It is better to seek refuge in the Lord than to trust in princes. All nations have encompassed me; but in the name of the Lord, I routed them. They swarmed around me; but in the name of the Lord, I cut them down. They swarmed like bees about me, but they were extinguished like a fire of thorns; but in the name of the Lord, I cut them down. You pushed me that I might fall, but the Lord helped me. The Lord is my strength and song; He has become my salvation. The voice of rejoicing and salvation is heard in the tents of the righteous: "The right hand of the Lord does valiantly. The Lord's right hand is raised in triumph; the Lord's right hand does valiantly!" I shall not die, but live to relate the deeds of the Lord. The Lord has surely punished me, but he has not left me to die. Open for me the gates of righteousness, that I may enter and praise the Lord. This is the gate of the Lord; the righteous may enter through it.

Zeh hayom asah Adonai, nagilah v'nism'chah vo.

I thank you for you have answered me, becoming my salvation.
The stone which the builders rejected has become the major cornerstone.
This the Lord's doing; It is marvelous in our eyes.
This is the day which the Lord has made; We will be glad and rejoice on it.

Give thanks to God of all heaven,
   His kindness endures forever.
The soul of every living being shall bless your name, Lord our God the spirit of all flesh shall ever glorify and exalt your remembrance, our King. Throughout eternity Thou art God. Besides Thee we have no king who redeems and saves, ransoms and rescues, sustains and shows mercy in all times of trouble and distress. We have no King but Thee-God of the first and of the last, God of all creatures, Master of all generations, One acclaimed with a multitude of praises, He who guides His world with kindness and His creatures with mercy. The Lord neither slumbers nor sleeps; He rouses those who sleep and awakens those who slumber; He enables the speechless to speak and loosens the bonds of the captives; He supports those who are fallen and raises those who are bowed down. To Thee alone we give thanks.

Were our mouth filled with song as the ocean, and our tongue with joy as the endless waves; were our lips full of praise as the wide heavens, and our eyes shining like the sun or the moon; were our hands spread out in prayer as the eagles of the sky and our feet running as swiftly as the deer--we should still be unable to thank Thee and bless your name, Lord our God and God of our fathers, for one of the thousands and even myriads of favors which Thou hast bestowed on our fathers and on us. Thou hast liberated us from Egypt, Lord our God, and redeemed us from the house of slavery. Thou has fed us in famine and sustained us with plenty. Thou hast saved us from the sword, helped us to escape the plague, and spared us from severe and enduring diseases. Until now your mercy has helped us, and your kindness has not forsaken us; mayest Thou, Lord our God, never abandon us.
Therefore, the limbs which Thou has given us, the spirit and soul which Thou has breathed into our nostrils, and the tongue which Thou hast placed in our mouth, shall all thank and bless, praise and glorify, exalt and revere, sanctify and acclaim your name, our King. To Thee, every mouth shall offer thanks; every tongue shall vow allegiance; every knee shall bend, and all who stand erect shall bow. All hearts shall revere Thee, and men's inner beings shall sing to your name, as it is written: "all my bones shall say: O Lord, who is like Thee? Thou savest the poor man from one that is stronger, the poor and needy from one who would rob him." Who may be likened to Thee? Who is equal to Thee? Who can be compared to Thee? O Great, mighty and revered God, supreme God is the Master of heaven and earth. Let us praise, acclaim and glorify Thee and bless your holy name, as it is said: "A Psalm of David: Bless the Lord, O my soul, and let my whole inner being bless His holy name."

O God in your mighty acts of power, great in the honor of your name, powerful forever and revered for your awe-inspiring acts, O King seated upon a high and lofty throne!

He who abidest forever, exalted and holy is His name. And it is written: "Rejoice in the Lord, you righteous; it is pleasant for the upright to give praise."

By the mouth of the upright you shall be praised; By the words of the righteous you shall be blessed; By the tongue of the pious you shall be exalted; And in the midst of the holy you shall be sanctified.

In the assemblies of the multitudes of your people, the house of Israel, with song shall your name, our King, be glorified in every generation. For it is the duty of all creatures to thank, praise, laud, extol, exalt, adore, and bless Thee; even beyond the songs and praises of David the son of Jesse, your anointed servant.

Praise be your name forever, our King, who rules and is great and holy in heaven and on earth; for to Thee, Lord our God, it is fitting to render song and praise, hallel and psalms, power and dominion, victory, glory and might, praise and beauty, holiness and sovereignty, blessings and thanks, from now and forever.
All your works praise Thee, Lord our God; your pious followers who perform your will, and all your people the house of Israel, praise, thank, bless, glorify, extol, exalt, revere, sanctify, and coronate your name, our King. To Thee it is fitting to give thanks, and unto your name it is proper to sing praises, for Thou art God eternal.

Have mercy, Adonai our God, on Israel your people, on Jerusalem your city. Rebuild Jerusalem, the holy city, speedily in our days. Bring us there and cheer us with its restoration; may we eat there Israel’s produce and enjoy its goodness; we praise you for Jerusalem’s centrality in our lives. Praised are you, Adonai, for the land and the fruit of the vine.
XV. NIRTZAH / Hasal Seder - נִרְצָה

The Passover Seder is concluded, according to each traditional detail with all its laws and customs. As we have been privileged to celebrate this Seder, so may we one day celebrate it in Jerusalem. Pure One who dwells in the high places, support your People countless in number. May you soon redeem all your People joyfully in Zion.
